

CAMO

CONTINUING AIRWORTHINESS MANAGEMENT ORGANISATION

An EASA CAMO PART M certified company

An EASA CAMO PART M certified company, providing industry leading CAMO services and also approved as Airworthiness Review staff as per M.A. 707 .

CAMO Certified Part M service includes:-

- Aircraft Maintenance Program development and revision service.
- Records stored in secure cabinets
- Electronic backups off site
- Airworthiness Directive monitoring
- Service Bulletin Review
- Forecasting and planning due Maintenance
- Down route AOG assistance
- Import and Export assistance

Zela Aviation is able to offer to its valued clients CAMO Services in conjunction with an established CAMO provider

Based in Europe and focused on delivering first class solutions to operators and leasing companies, the responsibility of scheduled and necessary CAMO related tasks is in the hands of professionals.

Offering specialised experience dedicated to airline operators, maintenance organisations, small companies and anyone that may need:

- Engineering Support
- Technical representatives
- Commercial support

An excellent engineering team as well as industry specialists are available and have the necessary experience to support your requirements.

We offer a wide scope of services to maintain the continuous airworthiness of your fleet.

Please send an email to sales@zelaaviation.com to find out more about our CAMO Services.

"We support airlines, aircraft leasing companies and others globally"